Unlock your rifle's full potential with the Field Stock, a precision-enhancing upgrade designed for shooters who demand accuracy and adaptability. Whether you're hunting, competing, or shooting casually at long range, the Field Stock offers the perfect combination of comfort, performance, and ease of use.

- Precision Engineering: Achieve improved accuracy with the aluminum v-block bedding and a free-floating barrel design, ensuring consistent performance with every shot.
- Ergonomic Comfort: The traditionally shaped polymer stock provides warmth in cold weather, while the adjustable buttstock with cheek riser and length of pull spacers allows you to maintain a repeatable shooting position for faster target acquisition and greater consistency.
- Versatile Customization: The included sling swivel studs and M-LOK forend let you mount essential accessories like a sling, bipod, ARCA rail, or tripod, tailoring your setup for any shooting discipline. AICS magazine compatibility ensures you're equipped with the ammo capacity you need for the job.
- Effortless Installation: Upgrading your rifle is simple—just drop your action into the stock and secure it with two screws. No complex gunsmithing required.
